

You Don't Have to Parent Alone

Things to Keep in Mind

My responsibility is to...

- Abide (John 15)
- Pray (Ephesians 3:14-21)
- Teach (Deut 6:7)
- You don't have to parent alone because the Lord is always with you. (Joshua 1:9)

Ways to Parent/Teach Your Kids with Others

Watermark Kids

- Curriculum – Bible Timeline
- Drive Time – sign up for the text!
- Join the Journey Jr.- journals and podcast

Community

- Watermark Kids Leaders
- Single Adults
- Your Village

Other Resources

- Times to teach your kids
 - Mealtime, Drive Time, Bedtime, Anytime
- Categories for teaching your kids
 - Prayer, Bible stories, Scripture memory, God's character, books, songs, play

- Tiny Theologians
- Storybook Bibles
 - The Beginner's Bible – Zonderkids
 - The Jesus Storybook Bible -Sally Loyd-Jones
 - The Beginner's Gospel Story Bible – Jared Kennedy
 - The Gospel Story Bible – Marty Machowski
 - The Biggest Story – Kevin DeYoung
- Books that teach truth
 - Tiny Theologians – board books
 - Baby Believer – board books
 - Big Theology for Little Hearts – board books
 - Tales that Tell the Truth
 - Little Pilgrims Progress
 - Biographies for Kids: Do Great Things For God
- Bible memory songs:
 - Slugs and Bugs
 - Seeds
 - Worship in the Word
- Videos:
 - Crossroads Kids Club videos
 - Saddleback

Remember

My responsibility is to abide, pray, and teach. You don't have to do it all at one time. Ask yourself, "What does it look like to be faithful today?"